WHEREAS, the Provincial Advisory Council for Police Transformation and Development (PACPTD) of Aklan Police Provincial Office plays an important role in the realization of the Philippine National Police PATROL PLAN 2030, specifically in its war against illegal drugs, along with the other programs and projects of the organization;

WHEREAS, it acknowledges that a multi-sectoral representation of the PACPTD creates a diverse yet effective approach in making a peaceful Aklan in general through the employment of different programs, projects and initiatives.

WHEREAS, PACPTD is not only working for the promotion of peace in Aklan but also to ensure protection of human beings from any form of harm.

WHEREAS, Dengue cases in the province keep on increasing with 1,603 as of June 29, 2019 according to the statistics gathered by Aklan Provincial Epidemiology Surveillance and Response Unit. There is 97% increase in the number of cases compared to the same period last year. It also showed that the municipality of Kalibo has the highest number of incident with 394 cases.

WHEREAS, this incident is considered "ALARMING and DISTURBING" as this endangers the life of each and every Aklanons in general. This is manifested by the true condition of hospitals in the province especially the Dr. Rafael S. Tumbukon Memorial Hospital wherein even the hallway/lobby of said medical institution were already occupied by patients.

WHEREAS, programs and activities were partially initiated by the government especially the Department of Health whose tasked is to ensure a safe and liveable condition of every community.

WHEREAS, PACPTD is urging ALL MUNICIPAL POLICE STATIONS and the partner sectors TO INITIATE THE CONDUCT OF THE DAILY MASSIVE AND SIMULTANEOUS CLEAN-UP DRIVES AND TO INTENSIFY INFORMATION CAMPAIGN IN THEIR RESPECTIVE AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITIES.

WHEREAS, among of the activities that may be considered are:

a. Chief of Police/Officer in-Charge may initiate conduct of an urgent meeting with their respective Municipal Advisory Council for Police Transformation and Development (MAC-PTD) together with their Local Chief Executive, Municipal Health Officer(s), Head of National and Local Agencies and/or their representatives, School Principals, Deans of Colleges, Religious leaders and other non-government and civic society organizations present in the municipality;

b. Plan of the program of activities on the launching and schedule for the MASSIVE Daily Clean up Drive Efforts in the AOR purposely for the prevention of proliferation of said disease;

c. Implement other programs and projects necessary to lessen the incident of Dengue.

NOW THEREFORE, thru the urgent motion of Dr. Athena Magdamit, member/ AMHOP Chairman, duly seconded by Dr. Ma. Jhoanna Gonzales-Guarin, BE IT RESOLVED AS IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED approving "A RESOLUTION URGING THE AKLAN POLICE PROVINCIAL OFFICE AND ITS LOWER UNITS TO PARTNER WITH THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT UNITS AND OTHER SECTORS TO INTENSIFY INFORMATION CAMPAIGN AND IMPLEMENT THE DAILY CONDUCT OF MASSIVE CLEAN-UP DRIVES TO PREVENT AND MITIGATE THE ALARMING INCREASE OF DENGUE CASES IN AKLAN";

UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED during an emergency 3rd PACPTD meeting on July 7, 2019 held at Aklan Police Provincial Office Multi-purpose Hall, Camp Pastor Martelino, New Buswang, Kalibo, Aklan;
